Costa Blanca South, Monóvar

This 3,753 m² plot is located just outside Monóvar and is designated for agricultural use only. While it is not buildable, it includes access to irrigation water, making it a practical choice for growing crops, planting trees, or other farming activities. The size and access to water make it ideal for hobby farmers or anyone looking to cultivate a manageable piece of land. The area around Monóvar is known for its agricultural heritage, with olive trees, vineyards, and almond groves common throughout the region. The plot is easily accessible and only a short drive from the town of Monóvar, which offers supermarkets, schools, restaurants, and medical facilities. Alicante city and the coast are also within reach, just 35–40 minutes away by car. This is a great opportunity to own productive land in a well-connected rural setting.
